

Thursday, November 21, 2019

Dear Members of the Syracuse University Community:

This morning I shared that I would be meeting with a group of Jewish students to hear their concerns and to work toward solutions.

The students and I discussed and agreed to these recommendations. As a result of our dialogue, I have signed the recommendations.

Working with our students to strengthen this community remains my top priority.

Sincerely,

Chancellor Kent Syverud